Worksheet on Spoken and Written Expressions

Direction for questions (1-5): Read the given dialogue and fill in the blanks to complete the conversation:

Kelly: Ugh, Della, I can't believe I failed the history test. It's so frustrating!

Della: Hey, it happens to the best of us, Kelly. Don't be ____1____ yourself.

Kelly: But you ____2____ it! How do you always manage to get the highest score?

Della: Well, maybe I'm just lucky, or maybe I just study a bit differently. But that doesn't mean you can't improve.

Kelly: I feel like I'll never get ____3____. History is just not my thing.

Della: Come on, Kelly. Don't be so negative. I've been thinking, maybe we could study together this weekend for the next test. Two heads are better than one, right?

Kelly: You'd actually study with me, even ____4____?

Della: Of course! We're friends, and I want to help you succeed. Plus, I'm not just doing it for you. I think it could be beneficial for both of us.

Kelly: That's really nice of you, Della. I appreciate it.

Della: No problem! We'll go through the material together, make some fun mnemonics, and hopefully, it'll make history a bit more interesting.

Kelly: Thanks, Della. I guess I'll give ____5____.

Direction for questions (6-10): Read the given dialogue and fill in the blanks to complete the conversation:

Jenny: Paula, I was thinking we could catch that new movie everyone's talking about this weekend. What do you say?

Paula: Oh, Jenny, I had something different in mind. I thought we could go for a picnic and enjoy the beautiful weather.

Jenny: A picnic? Really? I was really looking forward _____ 6 _____ that movie.

Paula: Well, I was looking forward to some fresh air and a relaxing day outdoors. We could use a break from our routine.

Jenny: (pauses) Yeah, but a movie could be a nice break too. You know, just chilling in the theatre with some popcorn.

Paula: (smiles) True, but imagine sitting by a lake, having a picnic, and enjoying the serenity of nature.

Jenny: (sighs) I guess that _____ 7 _____.

Paula: So, what do you say? Let's go for a compromise. How about we have a small picnic in the park and then catch the evening show of the movie?

Jenny: (smiles) That actually _____ 8 _____! We get the _____ 9 _____.

Paula: Exactly! It's all about finding a _____ 10 _____. A picnic and a movie day it is, then!
