Worksheet on Spoken and Written Expressions

Direction for questions (1-5): Read the given dialogue and fill in the blanks to complete the conversation:

Mike: Hey, Carlos, I heard the football team selections were posted today. How did it go for you?

Carlos: Well, you're _____1_____ of the team! I made it!

Mike: That's awesome, man! Congratulations! I knew you'd make it. But, uh, I didn't see my name on the list.

Carlos: Oh no, really? That's a bummer, Mike. I was hoping we'd be _____2_____ this year.

Mike: Yeah, me too. I guess I didn't perform as well as they wanted during the tryouts.

Carlos: It doesn't mean you're not a great player, Mike. Sometimes these things are just so subjective.

Mike: Thanks, Carlos. It's _____3_____, you know? I was really looking forward to playing in the championship this year.

Carlos: I get it. But hey, I'll make sure to _____4_____ on all the games and practices. Maybe next time, you'll be right there with me on the field.

Mike: Yeah, I appreciate that. I'll still come and cheer you guys on. It's just tough knowing I won't be out there playing alongside you.

Carlos: Absolutely, man. Your support means a lot. And who knows, maybe there'll be other opportunities for you to showcase your skills. You're still an awesome player in my book, Mike.

Mike: Thanks, Carlos. _____5_____. Good luck in the championship, and make sure to score one for me out there!

Direction for questions (6-10): Read the given dialogue and fill in the blanks to complete the conversation:

Hannah: Maria, we really need to figure out how to present this data for our science project. The deadline _____ 6 _____.

Maria: Well, if you had listened to my ideas from the beginning, we wouldn't be in this mess. I suggested using graphs, but no, you insisted on charts.

Hannah: Charts are clearer! Your graphs would just confuse everyone. It's your fault for not understanding that.

Maria: It's not about understanding; it's about communication. You never consider my opinions. _____ 7 _____.

Hannah: Your way is just too complicated. I don't have time for all those details.

Maria: If _____ 8 _____, you'd see it's not that complicated.

Hannah: (rolls eyes) Fine, explain then.

Maria: We could use graphs to show the trends more visually. It's not that hard, and it would make our project stand out.

Hannah: (pauses) Oh. I guess that makes sense.

Maria: See? Communication is the key. We need _____ 9 _____ to each other.

Hannah: (sighs) You're right. I shouldn't have dismissed your ideas without considering them.

Maria: And I shouldn't have been so forceful in pushing my ideas. I'm sorry, Hannah.

Hannah: (smiles) I'm sorry too, Maria. Let's work together and make this project the best it can be.

Maria: Agreed. Teamwork, right?

Hannah: Absolutely. _____ 10 _____ it is.
